

Weekly Report

2015.11.30-2015.12.06

1.Project

Global Network Project

- link to the backstage to get data for the project
- revise some small details to make the program feel better
- get ready to give the first version of this project

2.Paper Reading

HOLA: Human-like Orthogonal Network Layout

- read again this paper and it's related papers to get a better understanding of it's method and algorithm
- prepare and revise the slice for the Thursday morning report
- report this paper on the Thursday group meeting and discuss questions about it with other group members

3.Blog Writing

- review the second lecture given by Professor Westermann from TUM the week before last week
- write an article about it and put this article on our group blog

4.To Do

- prepare for the demo this week in Beijing
- keep revising the first version of the project of Global Network
- write an article about the paper presented last Thursday on our group blog
- get to know about the Data Map Project